

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please leave the New Jersey laws regarding telephone consumer protection as is. We hardly get any telemarketing calls, and we like it that way. Telemarketers did wrong things in the past, such as calling at dinner time, disguising the reason for their calls from whoever answered the phone, and making nuisances of themselves.